PATIENT CONSENT FOR MEDICAL TREATMENT

I, the undersigned, am the patient, or the patient's duly authorized representative, and do hereby voluntarily consent to and authorize medical care and treatment by Summit Medical Group, through its individual physicians, employees, and/or agents. This care and treatment encompasses all diagnostic and therapeutic treatments considered necessary or advisable in the judgment of the physician and provided by Summit Medical Group.

I am aware that the practice of medicine is not an exact science and I acknowledge that no guarantees have been made to me as to the result of treatments or examinations performed by the physician or Summit Medical Group.

I acknowledge that I have received a copy of Summit Medical Group's Notice of Privacy Practices and I understand that the notice is also posted at each location where services are provided and on the internet at www.summitmedical.com. I consent to be called on my cell phone concerning healthcare services rendered to me.

To protect against the transmission of blood-borne diseases such as Hepatitis B and Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome, I understand that it may be necessary to test my blood for certain diseases while I am a patient of Summit Medical Group. I understand and consent that my blood, as well as the blood of any person accidentally exposed to my blood, will be tested. I further understand that my blood will not be tested for these diseases unless ordered by my physician and that the results of all tests will be kept confidential.

I have read this form, or had it read to me, and I certify that I fully understand and accept its contents unless noted.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES FOR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU
MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.

PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY!

Summit Medical Group, PLLC (“Summit”) is permitted by federal privacy laws to make uses and disclosures of your health information for purposes of treatment, payment, and health care operations. Protected health information is the information we create and obtain in providing our services to you. Such information may include documenting your symptoms, examination and test results, diagnoses, treatment, and applying for future care or treatment. It also includes billing documents for those services.

Example of uses of your health information for treatment purposes are:

- During the course of your treatment, the physician determines he/she will need to consult with another specialist in the area. He/she will share the information with such specialist and obtain his/her input.

Example of use of your health information for payment purposes:

- We submit requests for payment to your health insurance company. The health insurance company or business associate helping us obtain payment requests information from us regarding your medical care given. We will provide information to them about you and the care given.

Example of Use of Your Information for Health Care Operations:

- We may obtain services from business associates such as quality assessment, quality improvement, outcome evaluation, protocol and clinical guidelines development, training programs, credentialing, medical review, legal services, and insurance. We will share information about you with such business associates as necessary to obtain these services.

YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION RIGHTS

The health and billing records we maintain are the physical property of Summit. You have the following rights with respect to your Protected Health Information

1. Request a restriction on certain uses and disclosures of your health information by delivering the request in writing to our office—we are not required to grant the request but we will comply with any request granted;
2. Obtain a paper copy of the Notice of Privacy Practices for Protected Health Information (“Notice”) by making a request at our office;
3. Right to inspect and copy your health record and billing record—you may exercise this right by delivering the request in writing to our office using the form we provide to you upon request; appeal a denial of access to your protected health information except in certain circumstances;
4. Right to request that your health care record be amended to correct incomplete or incorrect information by delivering a written request to our office using the form we provide to you upon request. (The physician or other health care provider is not required to make such amendments); you may file a statement of disagreement if your amendment is denied, and require that the request for amendment and any denial be attached in all future disclosures of your protected health information;

5. Right to receive an accounting of disclosures of your health information as required to be maintained by law by delivering a written request to our office using the form we provide to you upon request. An accounting will not include internal uses of information for treatment, payment, or operations, disclosures made to you or made at your request, or disclosures made to family members or friends in the course of providing care;
6. Right to confidential communication by requesting that communication of your health information be made by alternative means or at an alternative location by delivering the request in writing to our office using the form we give you upon request; and,

If you want to exercise any of the above rights, please contact Summit’s Privacy Officer in person or in writing, during normal hours. They will provide you with assistance on the steps to take to exercise your rights.

Summit’s Responsibilities

Summit is required to:

- Maintain the privacy of your health information as required by law;
- Provide you with a notice as to our duties and privacy practices as to the information we collect and maintain about you;
- Abide by the terms of this Notice;
- Notify you if we cannot accommodate a requested restriction or request;
- Accommodate your reasonable requests regarding methods to communicate health information with you;

- Accommodate your request for an accounting of disclosures; and
- Notify you in the event there is a breach of unsecured protected health information.

We reserve the right to amend, change, or eliminate provisions in our privacy practices and access practices and to enact new provisions regarding the protected health information we maintain. If our information practices change, we will amend our Notice. You are entitled to receive a revised copy of the Notice by calling and requesting a copy of our “Notice” or by visiting our office and picking up a copy.

To Request Information or File a Complaint

If you have questions, would like additional information, or want to report a problem regarding the handling of your information, you may contact:

Privacy Officer
1225 E. Weisgarber Road, Suite N-200
Knoxville, TN 37909
(865) 584-4747
ComplianceHelp@summithealthcare.com

Additionally, if you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a written complaint at our office by delivering the written complaint to the Privacy Officer. You may also file a complaint by mailing it or e-mailing it to the Secretary of Health and Human Services.

We cannot, and will not, require you to waive the right to file a complaint with the Secretary of Health and Human Services (HHS) as a condition of receiving treatment from the office.

We cannot, and will not, retaliate against you for filing a complaint with the Secretary of Health and Human Services.

Effective Date: April 14, 2003
Revised Date: May 1, 2013
